

Teaching It Like It Is - Aboriginal Relationships & Sexual Health Education Course

Develop the confidence and capacity to educate and support Aboriginal young people in relationships and sexual health.

Our 2-day interactive course is designed to increase the confidence and ability of all educators who work with Aboriginal young people (including ACEOs, ASETOs, AETs and AEWs) to educate and inform them about relationships and sexual health. All topics include practical demonstrations of activities and resources to engage Aboriginal young people.

The course covers communication and feelings, healthy relationships, power and bullying, the body, puberty and reproduction, safer sex, media and technology, diversity and more.

Additional Aboriginal-specific resources will be available to purchase at the course.
