

Artwork by Monica Collins.

Scholarships for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Focused Workers

SHINE SA is offering scholarships for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Focused Workers to participate in our sexual and reproductive health and relationship wellbeing courses.

Who can apply?

Priority for these scholarships will be given to professionals who identify as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people or work in an Aboriginal community controlled organisation and who have a strong interest in sexual and reproductive health.

What does it cover?

SHINE SA will cover the full cost of your SHINE SA course of choice. Applicants attending a course that is longer than one day in duration can apply for contribution towards the expenses to attend the course.

How to apply:

Visit www.shinesa.org.au/scholarships

Applicants must apply by 1 July 2026.

SHINESA