

With Respect Family Domestic and Sexual Violence (FDSV) Counselling Service for LGBTIQA+ People

SHINE SA's With Respect FDSV Counselling Service provides free professional and specialised counselling and support for LGBTIQA+ people who have been impacted by family, domestic or sexual violence.

Who do we support

Anyone over 16 years old in South Australia from LGBTIQA+ communities who has experienced - or is currently experiencing - family, domestic, or sexual violence.

What we provide

- Trauma-informed counselling provided by counsellors with specialist training in FDSV support
- Information and referrals to additional services.

Service information

- This service is free
- You do not need a referral to access services
- Contact SHINE SA on 8300 5300 and ask to book an appointment to see our With Respect counsellor.

For more information visit: www.shinesa.org.au/withrespect

Supported by Government of South Australia Office for Women