

Artwork by Monica Collins.

Let's Talk About Sexual Health: Aboriginal Focus

The Let's Talk About Sexual Health: Aboriginal Focus is a 2-day course for people who work directly with Aboriginal people and wish to improve their sexual and reproductive health knowledge and address sexual and reproductive health and relationship issues within Aboriginal communities.

On completion of this course, you will have:

- have an increased level of confidence working with Aboriginal communities in the area of sexual health
- be introduced to new sexual health language and communication skills to improve client/worker relationships
- develop skills to yarn with clients about their sexual health needs and more.

This course is only suitable for people who work directly with Aboriginal people or are undertaking studies with an Aboriginal focus.

Cost: $300 | Where: SHINE SA Woodville | Date: 21 & 22 August 2024

Time: 9:30 am - 5:00 pm | Enquiries: courses@shinesa.org.au / 8300 5318

Enrol: www.shinesa.org.au/activity/aboriginal-focus