

Let's Talk About Sexual Health: Youth Focus

The Let's Talk About Sexual Health: Youth Focus is an engaging 2-day course designed to help workers build their knowledge and confidence in addressing relationships and sexual health with young people.

Through interactive discussions and activities, participants gain practical insights in a supportive learning environment. The course content is tailored to be relevant and applicable to the real-life contexts participants encounter in their work.

On completion of the course you will have:

- the confidence to work with clients around relationships and sexual health
- an understanding of how values and beliefs may influence your practice and your clients' responses to relationships and sexual health
- accurate and inclusive vocabulary about sexual health, gender, sexuality, anatomy, and relationships to use when working with your clients
- practical skills and knowledge to support clients with relationships and sexual health
- exposure to resources and ideas on how to use them effectively with clients to learn about relationships and sexual health.
