

Let's Talk About Sexual Health: Youth Focus

Build confidence for the sexual health and relationships conversations that matter.

Let's Talk About Sexual Health: Youth Focus is a 2-day course for people who work with young people.

This course will build your knowledge and confidence to talk about relationships and sexual health, and respond to the questions and situations that can come up in your work.

Through discussion, activities and shared learning, you'll have space to reflect on your own practice, explore different perspectives and consider what works in the contexts you work in.

You'll leave with:

* Greater confidence to support young people with relationships and sexual health
* A deeper understanding of how values and beliefs can influence your practice and young people's experiences
* Inclusive and accurate language around sexual and reproductive health, gender, sexuality, anatomy and relationships
* Practical skills and knowledge you can apply in your day-to-day work
* Resources, ideas and approaches to use with young people

Cost: $335 | Location: SHINE SA, 64c Woodville Road, Woodville
