

Teaching It Like It Is – Secondary Relationships & Sexual Health Education Course

Learn how to teach comprehensive relationships and sexual health to secondary years in a safe and inclusive environment.

Our 2-day course, facilitated by experienced educators, will examine what makes a comprehensive relationships and sexual health program for secondary years. The course includes teaching methods, up-to-date sexual health information and practical demonstrations of classroom activities.

Participants will explore a range of resources and curriculum outlines, all mapped to the Australian Curriculum and the Department for Education's Keeping Safe: Child Protection Curriculum.

The course is tailored to school staff working with secondary years students including teachers and SSOs. However, this course has no pre-requisite and is open to all interested.

Participants will receive resources and a Certificate of Attendance that references the relevant Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.
