Teaching It Like It Is – Secondary Relationships & Sexual Health Education Course

Gain confidence in teaching relationships and sexual health education

Facilitators are experienced teachers

Gain practical skills

Includes ready-to-teach curriculum resources

Learn how to teach comprehensive relationships and sexual health education to secondary years (covering Years 7-10) in a safe and inclusive environment.

Our 2-day course, facilitated by experienced educators, will examine what makes a comprehensive relationships and sexual health program for secondary years.

The course includes teaching methods, up-to-date sexual health information and practical demonstrations of classroom activities.

Participants will explore a range of resources and curriculum outlines, all mapped to the Australian Curriculum and the Department for Education's Keeping Safe: Child Protection Curriculum.

The course is tailored to school staff working with secondary years students including teachers, leaders and SSOs. However, this course has no pre-requisite and is open to all interested.

Participants will receive resources and a certificate of attendance that references the relevant Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.

COST: $600 for DfE staff
$780 for non-government school/other organisation staff
$400 for pre-service teachers
