

Teaching It Like It Is – Tailored Learning/FLO Relationships & Sexual Health Education Course

Gain confidence in teaching relationships and sexual health education

Facilitators are experienced teachers

Gain practical skills

Includes ready-to-teach activities and resources

Learn how to teach a comprehensive relationships and sexual health education program for young people in tailored learning settings (e.g. FLO programs).

Our 2-day course, facilitated by experienced educators, explores the information, skills and strategies needed to empower young people to make informed relationships and sexual health choices. This course considers the unique challenges of supporting young people in alternative schooling. Through activities, demonstrations and discussions, participants will have the opportunity to expand their own knowledge and understanding.

For educators and support workers in alternative schooling settings (e.g. Flexible Learning Options (FLO) providers, Independent Learning Centres, Better Behaviour Centres, External Education, Home Education etc.)

Participants will receive resources and a Certificate of Attendance that references the relevant Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.
