Gender Diversity in Schools

Relationships & Sexual Health Education Course

Explore how to support young people who are trans, gender diverse, or gender questioning in a school setting.

This short course, facilitated by experienced educators, explores the information, skills and strategies needed create safer spaces at school for students who are gender diverse.

This course considers the unique challenges of being LGBTIQ+ in the school setting and unpacks the role of school staff in ensuring safe and supportive environments. Through activities and discussions, participants will have the opportunity to expand their own knowledge and understanding of gender diversity and inclusive practice.

Participants will:

- Gain an understanding of terminology around gender diversity
- Unpack personal values and feel confident to challenge values, attitudes and beliefs of themselves and others
- Learn how to model and promote inclusive practices
- Explore suggestions for a whole-school approach, including language, support, policies and procedures
- Discuss topics and questions in a safe space

This course is designed for those working in an education setting, including teachers, leadership staff, SSOs and admin. Participants will receive a Certificate of Attendance that references the relevant Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.
